LIVE IN DRESDEN

EXHIBITION FROM APRIL
12th – May 25th, 2008
GALLERY IN THE TASCHENBERGPALAIS

True to the MTZ® foundation's motto „Art meets medicine“, the Walentowski Gallery in Dresden cordially invites all scientists interested in the fine arts to the special exhibition in the private chapel of the Taschenbergpalais in Dresden. We present sensational pieces of the world-famous Pop Art artist James Rizzi. The exhibition is for SBMC attendees free of charge.

Our art experts will be available to provide you with professional advice. The exhibition is open daily 10am – 7pm.

The staff of the Walentowski Galleries wishes you eventful days in Dresden!

Devin Miles, shooting star of the German Modern Pop Art scene, has dedicated the painting "BERLIN STORY" to the MTZ-foundation. It will be exhibited in the Kulturpalast in Dresden, Germany, during the SBMC. The proceeds of the sale will benefit the MTZ foundation. If you are interested in buying BERLIN STORY, please contact Thomas or Monika Zimmermann at motho.zimmermann@t-online.de.
